JAN. 19 — Some 100,000 railroad commuters in the New York metropolitan area were compelled to seek alternate means of transportation when the New York Central and the New Haven Railroad suspended operations after striking harbor tug and ferryboatmen established picket lines at their passenger terminals.

The strike began on Jan. 10, when crews on tugs, ferryboats, barge floats, barges and lighters, under contract to 11 railroads serving the port of New York, walked off in a dispute over panning scales on the railroad tugs.

Contract negotiations broke down over the demand by railroad management that they be given the right to reduce the size of the present five-man crews on railroad tugs.

The negotiations remain deadlocked over this issue. The employers have proposed to freeze the present crew size for one year, after which reductions could be made 120 days following written notice to the union involved. Disagreements to be submitted to final and binding arbitration.

The unions involved are the L-CIO affiliated Masters, Seafarers and Pilots, Marine Engineers Beneficial Association and Seafarers International Union. They are standing firm on the position that no jobs be eliminated unless changes in technology or methods of work abolish need for the job.

The unions counter management's arbitration proposal by demanding the retention of the status quo for a period to be fixed by the employers. After the termination of that period all proposals to cut crews and establish minimum panning scales would be subject to reconsideration.

At the immediate dispute involves only 664 workers, the issues raised are far-reaching and can affect a great many thousands of railroad and other workers. This is made plain in the paid advertisement of the road tycoons.

What is involved is the issue of "featherbedding" which the road companies of this country have made their number one issue. Millions of dollars have been expended in newspaper, magazine, radio and television advertising to create a favorable public opinion in opposition to the alleged "make-work" practices.

On the same issue which was used by the steel corporation in their assault on the work-rules in the 116-day steel strike last year.

Cuba Rally Big Success In Bay Area

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 14—More than a thousand people came to the Fair Play for Cuba Committee's first public meeting in the Bay Area last night. This outpouring of people anxious to learn the truth about Cuba exceeded the committee's expectations, and a second hall had to be hastily rented to accommodate the overflow. Speakers shuttled between the two halls to repeat their talks.

Even the second hall was filled to capacity and finally about 200 disappointed people had to be turned away.

Marshall Windtiller, San Francisco State College professor, chaired. He pointed out that no major political event abroad had been so misrepresented in the American press as the Cuban Revolution. One purpose of the meeting, he said, was to set the record straight.

The internationally famous sculptor Beniamino Bufano was the first speaker. Viewing the more than capacity crowd, he said the meeting was a fine thing; but to be really effective we should be on the street corners speaking to those millions who are reading only the lies of the American press about Cuba.

He said that the foreign policy of the government was the responsibility of all of us, and he pointed to the latent power of America's 60,000,000 wage earners.

"If the American labor movement had a different leadership," he declared, "the workers could stop the wheels of industry until the government reversed its policy of aggression toward Cuba."

Paul M. Sweezy, coeditor of the Monthly Review, was the main speaker. A recent visitor to Cuba, he categorically denied published reports that the Cuban economy is on the verge of collapse. Far from that, he said, Cuba has registered a 30 per cent

Admit Situation Will Worsen During February and March

By Tom Kerry

JAN. 17 — The rise in unemployment last month exceeded all forecasts as 509,000 were added to the growing army of jobless workers. The official "unadjusted" total of 4,540,000 was the largest for any December since 1940. (The "seasonally adjusted" figure was 4,900,000.) The increase from November totals was three times the usual rise.

"No informed person had expected the December statistics on employment and unemployment to make pleasant reading," was the editorial comment of the Jan. 15, New York Times, which added: "The reality, however, has proved to be even worse than was expected. The number of unemployed last month was more than 4,500,000, the highest for any December since 1940. The seasonally adjusted unemployment rate was 6.8 percent, the highest since the 1958 recession."

And, the editorial adds, "the Department of Labor, whose estimate for last month proved too low, now estimates unemployment will be 5,600,000 this month and almost as great during February and March."

This, the editorial concludes, "is, obviously, too much unemployment." It most certainly is!

Yet, the outgoing Eisenhower administration still insists it is no recession, but simply a "rolling adjustment." "Mr. Eisenhower's advisers," says the Jan. 17, Wall Street Journal, "blame the downturn mainly on a business inventory adjustment; they believe will end soon. The President's farewell economic report to Congress, due Wednesday," it adds, "is expected to predict an early business recovery." Meanwhile?

Meanwhile, as the U.S. Department of Labor's monthly report on the status of the Labor force points out: "The number of persons unemployed for 15 weeks or longer was unchanged over the month at 1.0 million. However, this group of long-term unemployed rose by about 200,000 between the third and fourth quarters of 1960 and was also 200,000 higher than a year earlier."

"As in November, about half the long-term unemployed had been jobless for more than six months. The majority of this group of very long-term unemployed was made up of adult men. The groups most affected

A Timely Topic For Final Talk By Eisenhower

In his farewell speech to the American people, broadcast over radio and television, Eisenhower warned against the danger to our liberties implicit in a vast military establishment and an armaments industry unparalleled in peacetime.

While the warning was somewhat belated, it was, nevertheless, welcome. As an army career man who was elevated by the capitalist class to the position of Commander-in-Chief of the entire American military establishment, Eisenhower is in a position to know whereof he speaks. He contributed more than his share to the Prussianization of American life.

His warning, although welcome, is couched in the wrong tense. Instead of speaking of the future peril of militarism he should have addressed himself to the present reality as disclosed by the budget he submitted to Congress. For he took to the grave the same old story.

For in Eisenhower's farewell budget well over one-half the total estimated expenditure of approximately $80.0 billion is devoted to record peacetime military spending.

For the former year, total estimated budget expenditures total $78,945,000,000 of which $45,930,000,000 is requested for military expenses. For the year 1962, the figures are $80,865,000,000 and $47,392,000,000 with almost the entire $2 billion increase going for military expenses.

It is a frightening manifestation of the voracious appetite of the military machine which continues to devour an increasing share of our national wealth as well as undermine and destroy our civil liberties. Farewell speeches, especially accompanied by prayers, are all very good

People concerned about the acute medical care problem in this country see how easy it is to provide adequate care for those who need it.

Visiting workers begin to see that union-hating monopolies are quite unessential to the development of a country's economy.

Those concerned with farm problems are offered convincing evidence of the superiority of cooperatives and state farms.

Above all, visitors see that it is not utopian to seek to establish a government that is really interested in the welfare of the people.

Washington can't provide "protective service" against the revolutionizing influence of the impressive gains made by the Cuban people. They can't brainwash the ordinary American so thoroughly that the rational new society being built in Cuba has no effect on his thinking.

That's why the State Department now insists that everyone, except the businessmen it represents and the "news" reporters on their payrolls, must stay home.

complete. It does not reveal where the final responsibility lies for this bit of savagery which so fittingly opens the year 1961 A.D.

As legally elected head of the Congo government, Lumumba made a tragic mistake. With the best of intentions he invited the United Nations into his newly freed country to help solve its economic and social problems.

The UN with a fine Machiavellian hand immediately began undermining Lumumba; and when Kasavubu and Mobutu seized power it placed its weight behind this unsavory pair.

The UN acted in this way because it is dominated by Washington. The big corporations who rule through the Republicans and Democrats stand with the Belgian imperialists insofar as they have not yet taken over the Belgian role themselves. One of the big stakes in the Congo is the rich radioactive ore bodies needed in producing nuclear energy.

All these reactionary interests and forces were concentrated in those rifle butts that pounded the premier of the Congo government as he lay groaning on the ground.

It was a stiff price to pay for the illusion that the United Nations would help him to bring peace and prosperity to his country.

Let us hope that we in America do not finally have to pay in an even costlier obvious determination to prevent the convention from mak-increase in agriculture in two years and is advancing on all fronts.

Sweezy charged that the U.S. government is actively plotting the overthrow of the Castro regime. He documented his charges by quoting published reports of invasion plans engineered by the Central Intelligence Agency and other government bureaus.

Castro's mobilization of the militia was no phony maneuver, he said, but followed a tip from a Latin-American diplomat that an invasion was planned for the middle of January. The diplomat was in position to know, for his country had been invited by the U.S. to take part in the intervention, Sweezy said.

The editor of the Monthl. Review proposed that the U.S. reverse its catastrophic policy toward Cuba. The first step should be immediate withdrawal from Guantanamo. The U.S. should stop encouraging and assisting counter-revolutionary forces operating here and elsewhere. Diplomatic relations should be resumed as well as trade on the basis of equality. He suggested negotiations on compensation for American investors whose holdings have been taken over, again on the basis of equality and bearing in mind the superprofits these investors have already taken out of Cuba.

Lawrence F. Linghametti, poet and publisher, read a poem condemning intervention against Castro.

The youngest speaker was 17-year-old Lauretta Arms, a high-school student, just back from a trip to Cuba. She spoke of the enthusiasm of the Cuban youth for the Revolution. The awareness of the young people of Cuba concerning world problems and their eagerness to learn more, she said, was in marked contrast to the apathy and disinterest of her fellow students in the U.S.

Fred Fiati, a member of the local organizing committee for Fair Play, appealed for funds and membership in the organization. He told of the rapid growth of the committee in the Bay Area and announced the establishment of two new chapters in San Jose and Marin County.

A lively question-and-answer period concluded this highly successful meeting.

The Redbaiting Patch

In the early 1950's, during Korean war, his machi-mainly on redbaiting. At convention their chief argu-against 30-for-40 was the supporters were playing the hands of the Soviet government by trying to reduce volume of U.S. production.

Such tactics are less effective now. Reuther made a few along that line in 1958, when convention was held to settle demands for the pit contracts. But his main goal at that time was to offer a substitute for the shorter work

A convention in 1957 voted to make the shorter the main objective in the negotiations. But Reuther did feel bound by that.

Instead he came up with fancy "share-the-profit scheme, which he reinforced with a heavy dose of pessimism about the difficulty making new gains during recession.

Although nobody took Reuther's profit-sharing plan seriously and he himself dropped it of sight as soon as the negotiations began, he was able to the 1958 convention to dump fight for the shorter week. A factor that helped him was delegates' lack of organization and cohesion at the convention.

Now, three years later, Reuther isn't going to be able to silence the advocates of shorter week quite so easily.

A New Opposition

For one thing, their number have grown. Resolutions supporting 30-for-40 are being passed now not only by locals with an anti-Reuther record, but also by locals whose leaders have always been loyal Reutherites.

arrested were released on $5 bond. Five were charged with carrying guns to "a public meeting." Two of the Klansmen arrested were deputy sheriffs.

Meanwhile, Vandiver's speech to the legislature indicated that many white people of Georgia as in other southern states, are not ready to see their public school system destroyed for the sake of maintaining segregation.

During his 1958 election campaign, Vandiver had pledged that so long as he was governor no Negro would ever attend school with a white

[REDACTED]

On 3-21-61 SE JAMES L. MAHAN checked the records of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company, Los Angeles, for the listings on numbers CA 5-9957 and AT 4-8878. The records of that company list CA 5-9957 to Art's Barber Shop, 5472½ Valley Boulevard, Alhambra, California and AT 4-8878 to CATHERINE E. HEMMING, 2433 W. Valley Boulevard, Alhambra, California.

Under the pretext of checking out a stolen car report, Mrs. CATHERINE E. HEMMING was interviewed at her residence on 4-5-61 by SA C. ERWIN PIPER. She advised that she is the registered owner of a 1952 Plymouth Station Wagon bearing California license number FYA 579. She said that her son, GERALD PATRICK HEMMING, who had also resided at this residence from September, 1960 to March, 1961, had driven the car while he was here. GERALD PATRICK HEMMING left Los Angeles with Los Angeles Times (daily newspaper) columnist GENE SHERMAN to go to Miami and is presently living at 953 SW 10th Street, Miami, Florida, telephone FRanklin 4-3265. GERALD was in the US Marine Corp. for four and one half years working in air control towers. He presently has a visa to go to Guatamala. He was born 3-1-37 at Los Angeles, California.

On 4-10-61 SE EARL F. DUDLEY checked the records of the Los Angeles Bureau of Vital Statistics. In the 1937 birth records, Volume 371, #3180, there is a record of GERALD PATRICK HEMMING, male, born 3-1-37 at Methodist Hospital, Los Angeles, California. His father is recorded as GERALD PATRICK HEMMING, 426½ N. Virgil Avenue, Los Angeles, Caucasian, age 34, born Ceylon, India. His mother is recorded as (maiden name) CATHERINE ELLEN SIMPSON, 426½ Virgil Avenue, Los Angeles, Caucasian, age 23, born Canada, housewife. The name of the certifying physician is not readable. The certificate was file 3-8-37.

[REDACTED]

On 4-10-61 SE LLOYD H. DUDLEY checked the records of the Los Angeles PD and Los Angeles SO regarding HEMMING with negative results.

On 4-6-61 SE JAMES L. MAHAN checked the records of the Retail Merchants Credit Association of Los Angeles with negative results. There was, however, a record of subject's father, GERALD PATRICK HEMMING. These records reflect that he owned and operated the Atlantic Radio & TV, 1013 W. Valley Boulevard, Alhambra, in 1953. His wife was listed as CATHERINE who was employed as a saleslady at the Fairway Bakery, 421 N. Atlantic, Los Angeles, California. HEMMING has five dependents other than his wife.

On 4-7-61 WADE WESTMORELAND, Immigration and Naturalization Service, Los Angeles, advised that his Service has no record on GERALD PATRICK HEMMING.

The indices of the Los Angeles Division are negative on GERALD PATRICK HEMMING.

Inasmuch as HEMMING is residing in Miami, Florida, the Miami Division is being designated as office of origin and the matter is being RUC'd to that division.

L.A. Man Training Guerrillas for Cuba

MIAMI (UPI) — Joseph Patrick Hemming, who wears an Australian bush hat and stands 6ft. 5in., is a soldier of fortune who looks like one.

Hemming, a native of Los Angeles, believes his band of guerrillas now training in south Florida will help in the ultimate downfall of Fidel Castro.

The bearded giant, who says he is 24, prefers to use the name Jerry Patrick in commanding the Intercontinental Penetration Force (Interpen). The gang of guerrillas hopes to become useful in boat raids, reconnaissance and setting up underground activity within Cuba.

HEMMING SAYS he was a U.S. Marine for six years, and also was a paratroop instructor with Castro's rebel army in 1958, before defecting.

He says he uses the name Jerry Patrick rather than Hemming "because Latin Americans have trouble pronouncing Hemming."

The Interpen force here and in the Everglades consists of 19 men, many of them former members of the Army special forces, Marine reconnaissance groups, and Army paratroops.

Interpen is the paratroop unit of the anti-Communist International Brigade headed by Frank Fiorini, who fought with Castro but later defected.

Fiorini claims to have underwater demolition teams training in California, Virginia and New York.

Patrick says his Interpen group is supported by small contributions from sympathizers.

This case is being reopened and assigned to you. Handle promptly. Prepare LHM with a cover airtel. Submit Bureau and interested agencies. Eight copies to the Bureau, four to Miami, (registered mail) Secret Service Los Angeles, 115th INTC Region II, Los Angeles.

It is noted that an article in the "Los Angeles Times" recently reflected that the British Consul's home in Miami had been bombed. The article said this was due to an article in the Miami newspaper reflecting that the British were going to furnish arms to Castro. The article stated this was erroneous and a retraction was to be printed in the Los Angeles papers. Certainly the Miami Police Department would have information on this.

I cannot stress how important it is that this be handled immediately.

A review of the files of the Los Angeles FBI Office reflects that a military service record on file at the General Service Administration on May 26, 1961, contains information on one Gerald Patrick Hemming, Jr., Marine Serial No. 1488247. He was born March 1, 1937, at Los Angeles, California.

A source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised on July 29, 1964, that Hemming was then residing at 1036 Southwest Fifth Street, Apt. 2, Miami, Florida.

The July 10, 1961, issue of the "Miami Herald" contained an article captioned "We Choose How We'll Be Killed" by Dom Bonafede, a staff writer. This article relates the details of an interview which Bonafede had with Gerald Patrick Hemming, also known as Jerry Patrick. In this article Bonafede quoted Patrick as stating that he had gone to Cuba after he got out of the Marines and that he had joined up with Castro's rebels as a paratrooper instructor. During this period he became friendly with William Morgan, who was described as an American expatriate who served as a Major in Castro's Army and who was later executed as a traitor to the revolutionary cause. The article related that after Castro assumed power, Hemming was assigned as an Adjutant at the San Julian Air Base in Pinar del Rio. He said that he left Cuba in August, 1960 after being involved in a plot with a group of Nicaraguans seeking to overthrow the Somoza regime.

The article went on to state that Hemming said he hoped to overthrow the same Castro Government that he once fought for. The plan of Hemming, according to this article, was "in the classic revolutionary style - first establish sympathy among the peasants, then parachute in and start guerrilla fighting." He was also quoted as stating that, "There will have to be raids along the beaches to such Castro's Militia out of the hills and then infiltration of small commando forces."

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

DETAILS:

Investigation reflected in this report was conducted by Special Agent (SA) NORMAN E. BLISS at Miami, Florida, except where otherwise stated.

This case was referred to the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) by the Civil Service Commission (CSC) under the provisions of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961, as amended.

MM 151-186

The applicant had been the subject of a security type investigation and investigations under the Neutrality Act. The results of these investigations have been furnished CSC and Agency for International Development (AID).

The GERALD PATRICK HEMMING who was subject of the above mentioned security type investigation is identical with the applicant of this case, inasmuch as his birth data was checked out through U.S. Marine Corps records and was identical with that of the applicant. In addition, the physical description was identical.

In a Neutrality Act investigation, Inter-continental Penetration Forces (Interpen) in 1961, investigation of the head of the organization, GERALD PATRICK HEMMING, disclosed through the same Marine Corps records and physical description that he was identical with the applicant.

In another Neutrality Act type of investigation in 1965, regarding matters connected with the Dominican Republic, one GERALD PATRICK HEMMING was interviewed while under investigation at his home, 1036 SW 5th Street, Miami. This was the address of the applicant at that time.

EMPLOYMENT:

Ivan Tors Studio, Inc.

On August 10, 1967, ROBERT KNOCHER, studio manager, advised that the applicant worked in the studio from December, 1966, until March, 1967, but was not actually employed by the firm. He was an employee of Parachuting Associates, Inc., of Los Angeles, California. He stated that the person most likely to be well acquainted with the applicant would be DAVE BURT, head of this firm which is located at 5117 Hollywood Boulevard. He further advised that BURT could be located through BEN CHAPMAN of the Screen Directors Guild, Los Angeles, if he could not be located at the Hollywood Boulevard address.

On August 10, 1967, NEWT JONES, Security Officer, Ivan Tors Studio, recalled that the applicant worked as a parachute rigger in the studio in early 1967, and seemed to be a man of good character and reputation. He was well liked by the people working with him and conducted himself as a gentleman in every way. JONES was unable to recall anyone currently with the firm who was well acquainted with the applicant.

On August 11, 1967, YVONNE PAUL, Secretary, Markel Industries, 376 NW 25th Street, reported that her records show the applicant was employed as a steel rigger from October 13, to November 10, 1965, and had Social Security No. 554-44-8667. There was no other information reflected and Mrs. PAUL stated that no one in the firm would know the applicant.

NEIGHBORHOOD:

On August 10, 1967, GLADYS HIDU, 10310 SW 34th Street, reported that the applicant and his family lived next door to her until five or six weeks ago when they moved to California. She stated that in her opinion, the applicant was a very reputable young man who was devoted to his family and seemed to have friends of good reputation. She stated that shortly before moving to California, the applicant advised that he was expecting to go to work for the Federal Government and go to Viet Nam and he was very happy over this prospect. Mrs. HIDU stated that from her observations of the applicant she would regard him as a good prospect for a Federal position of trust or responsibility.

On August 18, 1967, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] advised that he has known the applicant

b7D

[redacted] young men who are soldiers of fortune and adventurers and that the applicant fits into this category. [redacted] stated that he was not involved in the revolutionary organization organized by the applicant for the purpose of overthrowing FIDEL CASTRO, but he was aware of some of the activities of the group. He recalled that the men working in that group, under the applicant, found him to be a very untrustworthy and undependable individual who was highly self-centered and egotistical. He made many promises to his men but did not carry out many of them. He indulged in flights of fantasy and his imagination was remarkably vivid.

b7D

[redacted] stated that the applicant is undoubtedly a very intelligent man and he appears to be quite well versed in military tactics. However, in view of his character traits mentioned above, [redacted] would not recommend him for any position with the U.S. Government.

b7D

On August 18, 1967, [redacted] [redacted] advised that he has been well acquainted with the applicant [redacted] and regards him as a highly intelligent man who has failed to mature emotionally. He stated that the reliability of the applicant cannot be counted upon and he seldom finishes up any project that he starts. He is regarded among the various counter-revolutionary figures in Miami as a poor leader whose imagination carries him away on many occasions.

b7D

He stated that the applicant feels he has to be in charge of anything with which he is connected and finds it very difficult to take advice from anyone, especially in military matters. He stated that the applicant must be described as untruthful and having little integrity. However, it was his opinion that the applicant is unquestionably loyal, being an American citizen, and probably quite brave personally. He stated that the lack of character and mental immaturity on the part of the applicant prevents him from recommending him for any position with the U.S. Government.

MM 151-186

AT KEY WEST, FLORIDA

Special Agent in Charge CESAR DIOSDADO, U.S. Customs Agency, advised SA RALPH L. JENSEN on August 11, 1967, that he was in charge of an investigation concerning GERALD PATRICK HEMMING, JR. during the above period while HEMMING was training a group of Cuban refugees at No Name Key for an eventual assault on Cuba. He stated that during that period, HEMMING spent considerable period of time on No Name Key, an isolated island which would only be reached by boat and which was uninhabited except for HEMMING and the trainees. HEMMING made occasional trips to Big Pine Key, the nearest inhabited island for supplies but maintained no residence on Big Pine Key.

REFERENCE:

On August 18, 1967, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] reported that he has known the applicant [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] He described the applicant as a very intelligent young man who has a considerable background of information concerning military equipment and tactics. However, [REDACTED] expressed the opinion that the applicant is just beginning to grow out of his boyhood and wake up to the fact that he will have to support his wife and children and will have to give up his soldier of fortune type of life in order to do it. He stated that the applicant makes an excellent physical appearance, speaks with a high degree of fluency and impresses people very greatly when he meets them, however, he tells highly imaginative and fanciful stories about his background and seldom carries out his responsibilities and assignments. He was dropped from the National Guard because he missed too many drills and was considered to be inactive.

[REDACTED] stated that he has heard that the applicant was to go with the U.S. Government in a position overseas in Viet Nam. He stated that he could see that under certain conditions, and when completely under close supervision of others, the applicant could do a creditable job. However, he qualified his recommendation of the applicant by pointing out that he would want to see him hired by the U.S. Government only if it is found that he has matured greatly in the past years.

b7D

Close Personal Associate

[redacted] advised that he has known the applicant [redacted] and regards him as a soldier of fortune and an adventurer who has earned a reputation for his wild flights of fantasy and his occasional uncouthness. He stated that the character of the applicant is highly questionable and he commonly tells people things which he knows are not the truth. He stated that the applicant is a very impressive person physically, being approximately 6'5" tall and well proportioned. He is quite intelligent, well read, and well versed in military information. However, [redacted] stated that because of the many times he has seen the applicant stretch the truth, he would hesitate to recommend him, for any position where the applicant's personal reports of a situation would have to be accepted. He stated that in his opinion the applicant could be a very valuable man if his trustworthiness and truthfulness could be depended upon.

CREDIT AND ARREST:

On August 16, 1967, THOMAS HARDISON, Assistant Credit Manager, Sears-Roebuck, Coral Gables, Florida, reported that the applicant owes Sears $1551 and he has not made any payments since May 2, 1967. This bill was incurred for a refrigerator and furniture. As of July 31, 1967, the credit records showed that the applicant was residing at 1209 South Atlantic Boulevard, Alhambra, California. Mr. HARDISON stated that the applicant's credit rating for Sears-Roebuck is very poor at this time.

On August 16, 1967, BILL MC FADDEN, Branch Manager, General Acceptance Corporation, 3402 SW 22nd Street, advised that the applicant owes $578.60 on a note which he took out on October 12, 1966, in the amount of $600. He stated that the applicant has made small payments promptly and as of August 11, 1967, was residing at 3448 North Muscatell, San Gabriel, California. MC FADDEN stated that he has always been well impressed with the applicant, whose credit is good with this firm. He stated that the slow rate of payment by the applicant has been because of his irregular work in the steel industry.

On August 14, 1967, Mrs. M. CARABELLO, Manager, Credit Bureau of Key West, Florida, advised her files contain no information concerning the applicant.

On August 7, 1967, Sergeant PAUL M. STOFER, JR., Criminal Division, Monroe County Sheriff's Office, Key West, advised his records reflect that GERALD PATRICK HEMMING, JR., number 6221, was arrested on December 4, 1962, by the U.S. Customs Agency Service for a violation of the U.S. Neutrality Act. STOFER advised that HEMMING was one of 13 persons arrested at Big Pine Key, Florida. He stated inasmuch as the violation was a violation of Federal law, applicant and his co-defendants were released to the U.S. Marshal, Miami, Florida, on December 5, 1967.

On August 14, 1967, Mrs. AGNES LOWE, Assistant City Clerk, and custodian of arrest and court records for the City of Key West, advised her records contained no information concerning applicant.

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

Memorandum

TO : DIRECTOR, FBI

DATE: 2/10/69

FROM : SAC, LOS ANGELES (100-72612)(P)

SUBJECT: NEW LEFT MOVEMENT IS-MISCELLANEOUS (FOREIGN INFLUENCE)

Re Bureau letter to Los Angeles dated 12/6/68 and Miami letter to Bureau dated 12/12/68.

Enclosed for the Bureau is one extra copy of this letter for forwarding for information to Legat, Mexico City. Information copies are also being furnished to Miami.

On 1/31/69, [redacted] was interviewed by SAS [redacted] and [redacted] at his address [redacted]

[redacted] He is in the process of writing a history of Cuba and is using some of the money from his job with Title Insurance Company to finance the publication of this manuscript on Cuba. [redacted] claims to have no first-hand knowledge of any activity by SDS or other similar groups using Mexico as an area for guerrilla training. He stated he has heard rumors about this but has no definite information. He feels Mexico is being used by various groups such as the SDS and the Black Panther Party for funneling persons into Cuba. He is quite sure that once in Cuba, many of these persons are trained in guerrilla warfare. It is to be noted that [redacted] is a rabid anti-Castro individual.

On 2/3/69, GERALD PATRICK HEMMING was interviewed in the downtown Los Angeles area by the above named agents. HEMMING stated he is a machinist employed by the Los Angeles Department of Water and Power. He resides in Apartment 4, 2668 Hoyt Avenue, El Monte, California. HEMMING has absolutely no knowledge of any SDS or related groups using Mexico as a base for guerrilla training.
